

Computer Use Policy

The Interlaken Public Library offers free public use of computers, software and Internet access.

General

1. Your computer and internet use must be consistent with this policy which has been adopted and is posted in the Library. Your use of the Library's Internet computers and services is a privilege, not a right.
2. If you are 14 years of age or under, you must have written permission of a parent or guardian to use the computers. Children under 7 must be accompanied by an adult.
3. Computer users must follow local, state, and federal laws relating to copyright, security, obscenity, materials harmful to juveniles and other laws regarding electronic media. Illegal acts involving library resources may be subject to prosecution by local, state, or federal officials.
4. You may not tamper with, alter, edit, damage or remove computer hardware, data and/or software.
5. Library staff and volunteers are available for general guidance on computer use but cannot provide in depth instruction.

Internet Access - Wired & Wireless Access

1. This Internet access option is open to patrons of all ages; parents or guardians of children are responsible for supervising and guaranteeing their child's proper and safe use of the Internet.
2. Your use of the Library's Internet access constitutes your acceptance of this Internet policy.
3. The Library does not monitor and has no control of information accessed through the Internet and does not assume responsibility for the validity or accuracy of information obtained through the Internet.
4. You are responsible for configuring your equipment to access the Library's wireless service.

Library-Supplied Internet Computers

1. All Library-supplied computer users must be registered Interlaken or FLLS library card holders.
2. Internet computers are available on a first-come, first-served basis for the next available computer.
3. Users may sign up for one hour blocks at the circulation desk.
4. The Library reserves the right to limit the number of people at individual Internet computers.

Printing Service

The Library's printer may be used in conjunction with computers; the cost to print per page is posted at computer work stations.
